

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

THURSDAY EVE., NOV. 30, 1882.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY, PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

"You come a tribute now to pay—The bells proclaim Thanksgiving Day, Well have you sown, well have you reaped;
And of the riches you have heaped.
Ring out the words: Who of his hoard Doth help God's poor doth lend the Lord!
Go get your cargoes underway;
The bells ring out Thanksgiving Day!"

Our waste basket is now ready for "beautiful snow" poetry.

The moon looks down on the leafless trees and chicken thief tracks.

BOURBON county has 221 miles of turnpike road built at a cost of $600,000.

A row of beets in Clark county, eighty feet long, averaged eight pounds to the foot.

If your coal bin is not securely fastened the cold weather will cause the coal to melt away in a surprising and aggravating manner.

BRING in the ivy and the holly; bring out the nuts and let's be jolly. But whilst the winds blow o'er the moor, bring something to the deserving poor.

CONDUCTOR Jno. Martin carries the finest lantern on the Kentucky Central. It is silver plated, handsomely engraved and was given to him by Col. Child.

CAPT. A. W. WILLIAMSON has bought the steamer Fashion and will put her in the trade between Vanceburg and Portsmouth. The price paid was $1,700.

If you want to make large Christmas sales the only way to do it is to advertise in the DAILY BULLETIN. The people expect to find your announcement there.

THE Ripley Bee and Times: A number of skeletons, supposed to be those of white men, were plowed up on the farm of Porter Whisner, one day last week. Quite a number of Indian relics were also found.

THE following marriage licenses have been issued in Brown county, Ohio, since our last report:
W. F. Black and D. Winter.
J. Fike and R. Webber.
I. Berger and M. Fritz.
W. T. Robinson and Anna McCarty.

VANCEBURG Courier: J. E. Lang, of Petersville, this county, has brought a suit against Milton Lykins, and one against Peter D. Lykins for slander, laying the damages in each case at $5,000. And Lang and wife have jointly sued the same parties for slander, asking a judgement in each of the latter cases for $5,000. There is bad feeling existing between these families, which will probably result seriously before peace is declared.

DR. COTTRELL delivered his lecture on Discounted Ministries to a crowded audience, in Tulips street, Nashville, Tenn., during the session of the general conference of the M. E. Church, South, last May and such was the enthusiasm created that a call was made by the city papers, next morning, that the lecture be repeated.
The World said that "the mantle of John C. Calhoun had fallen upon Dr. Cottrell, who is a native of the same district (Abbeville, S. C.) with the immortal statesman."

United States Senator McCreary, declared at Owensboro, that "he felt regret that the lecture did not continue for another hour and a half; that he had never heard any lecture to compare with it."

Sara Gaines, in the New Era, Hopkinsville, Ky., pronounced the lecture a most brilliant and masterly one.

The Holman Opera Company.

The Troy (N. Y.) Daily Telegram in speaking of the Holman Opera Company which is to appear at the Opera House next Monday and Tuesday evenings says:

"The Bells of Cornville" was rendered at Rand's Opera House last night, night and it was an occasion of unalloyed enjoyment, the opera being put upon the stage in a perfect manner, the solos and choruses were sung with intelligence and snap; applause was frequent and recalls insisted upon as the gems in the opera were given. Miss Sallie Holman appeared in the character of Serpolette and gave it a gleesome, inclusive interpretation, peculiarly audacious and charming. She has in excellent voice and acted with all her accustomed brilliancy. Miss Holman gained new laurels in the role of Germain by the careful and thorough manner in which she sang.
The male cast was strong, all the gentlemen doing very well indeed. Wallace Macready being entitled to a good word for the magnificent style in which he assumed his role. He has a tenor voice of excellent quality, strong in the upper as well as the lower register and manages it with consummate skill.

COUNTY POINTS.

GERMANTOWN.

The youths of our town are "all out of sorts" because the Trustees refuse to repeal the ordinance prohibiting the sale of fire crackers, etc., during the holidays. They fully expected a happy time, like that enjoyed last Christmas.

Dr. J. M. Frazee, D. C. Frazee and Dan. Perrine paid us a visit Tuesday.

Dick Boston, Henry and Jack Gouge (col.) were found guilty of "disturbing the peace" before the "Police Judge" on Monday. Henry being unable to pay the fine was sent to Brooksville and lodged in the County Jail.

Dr. E. C. Dimmitt, T. M. Dora, G. Gallagher, J. J. Williams, Isaac Woodward and Isaac Disher, have gone to Lexington to attend the trial of Jacob Williams, who was sentenced to lifetime imprisonment last winter, but granted a new trial by the Court of Appeals.

CARLISLE Mercury: It appears that cartridges are being distributed among the militia of the State, with instructions from Adjutant-General Nuckols to practice target shooting at once. It is also stated that an organization in Boyd county has secured 200 breech-loading guns from Cincinnati, and will doubtless practice too. This looks as if we should have some sure-enough war.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

The Hon. E. C. Phister left for Washington city, on Wednesday evening.

A hunting party composed of Messrs.
John Kearns, John Hunt, John Powers and Sony Nicholson left for Mt. Gilead, yesterday, to be absent several days.

A WEALTHY ship building firm of Philadelphia has bought 900 acres of land in Rowan county at $10 per acre. The white oak in that section of the State has been found to be of a very superior quality for ship-building purposes.

NEWS BREVITIES.

A Kentucky farmer lost four daughters in one day—by marriage.

Mr. Parnell writes that his doctors forbid him traveling, and, that he cannot address constituents until after the session.

Six thousand petitions bearing 679,000, signatures, in favor of a Sunday Closing bill for England, have already been presented to Parliament.

A Philadelphia preacher told the women of his congregation that Divine truth could not find its way into hearts that were cramped by corsets.

The profits at the Imperial Theatre, London, during the six nights Mrs. Langtry played "As You Like It," averaged £150 a night £900 for the week.

During the past twelve months American newspapers have been received by mail in England at the rate of more than 28,000 a day, or 10,000,000 a year.

An eccentric Boston man, astonished by getting a pair of boots made just as he had ordered them, gave the maker a commission for 263 pairs—all he expected to need for the rest of his life.

During the Egyptian war a column of leading telegraphic messages cost the London newspapers from $1,000 to $1,250.
Seven shillings and two-pence (about $1-80) per word was the rate charged.

Mrs. Wilson got a divorce from her husband, in Oregon, on the ground of cruelty.
He reformed, and wanted to marry her again, to which she consented; but he af-ward changed his mind, and now she is suing a for breach of promise.

The statue of the late Earl of Beaconsfield is undergoing the process of moulding, and it will be ready for casting at Christmas. It has been decided that the ceremony of unveiling shall not take place until Parliament meets next year.

Mr. Walker of the Vermont legislature, during the discussion of a bill requiring towns to mark paupers' graves with stones, moved that there be inscribed on each the amount that it had cost the town to support the persons buried underneath.

Mr. Barningham, the great English iron master, who died last month, bequeathed $1,000,000 to his only daughter, and nearly all the rest to two of his nephews.
He evidently did not believe in a woman's being married for her money. He left $2,500,000.

An humble Sausage thus addressed a haughty Seal Skin sacque: "How does it Happen, my Friend, that you Do not Recognize me when it was only Two Months ago that you Used to Skin up a Tree whenever I approached?" "You had None the Better of Me then, Mr. Sausage, for while I was Skinning up the Tree, you, forsooth, Were Sailing down the Street with a Tin-can tied to your Tail."—Denver Tribune.
